St. Xavier College, Cincinnati, O.

This Literary Establishment, situated on Sycamore Street, Cincinnati, is a chartered Institution, having been incorporated by the State Legislature in the year 1842, under the name and style of St. Xavier College. It enjoys all the privileges usually granted to Universities.

The Course of Studies, which will be found below in full, embraces the Greek, Latin, English, French and German Languages, Poetry, Rhetoric, History, Mythology, Geography, Book-keeping, Arithmetic, Mathematics, Chemistry, Mental, Moral and Natural Philosophy.

Though formerly open for the reception of boarders, the College has of late years been exclusively devoted to the instruction of day scholars. Nearly all the students are of the Roman Catholic Religion, yet pupils of every denomination are admitted, on condition, however, of exterior conformity.

Belonging to the Establishment is an extensive and well selected Library, already numbering about seven thousand volumes; and a Museum containing many rare specimens in Conchology and Mineralogy, besides a suitable Chemical and Philosophical apparatus.

All the departments are under the direction of members of the Society of Jesus.

REGULATIONS.

The Academic Year consists of but One Session beginning on the first Monday in September, and ending about the beginning of July, at which time, after a due examination of the Classes, a public exhibition takes place, followed by the conferring of degrees and a distribution of premiums.

The general age for admission is from ten to sixteen years. No student from any other College can be received without satisfactory testimonials of character and behavior from the Institution whence he comes.

When a student presents himself for admission, he is examined and placed in the class for which his previous acquirements have prepared him.

On completing their classical course, the degree of A. B., is conferred on all who prove deserving of that distinction, and after two years creditably spent in some literary pursuit, the graduate is entitled to the degree of A. M.

At two different periods within the Academic Year, bulletins are sent to the parents and guardians, to inform them of the conduct and proficiency of their sons and wards.

The College opens every morning at 6½ o'clock. Students who choose to come before the time of class, begin to study as they arrive. All must be present at 8 o'clock. At this hour the exercises begin, and continue till 12 o'clock. In the afternoon they begin at 2, and terminate at 4½ o'clock.

On Sundays and Holydays of obligation, all the Catholic Students are required to be present twice at the College; at 9 o'clock A. M. to assist at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, and at 2½ o'clock P. M. for Benediction, etc. Sickness, when attested by a note from the parents, will excuse the student for the omission of this duty. Any other reason must be previously exposed to the Prefect of Studies, in order to obtain the required exemption.

In general, though the government of the Institution is rather mild than severe, yet for the maintaining of order and discipline, without which good results are scarcely possible, strict obedience, assiduous application, and blameless conduct are required of every student. Any serious neglect of these essential points, renders the offender liable to effective correction, and even to dismissal, if deemed necessary.
